Internet Information System (IIS) Review

Name: _____   Date: _____

1. What does IIS stand for?

2. What versions of Windows 2008 server can run as a web server?

3. What protocols do we use with IIS?

4. Name three types of images used in web pages.

5. Describe the three types of images used in web pages.

6. What are the two major scripting languages used with a web server?

7. What tags begin and end a HTML index page?

8. What mode do you have to be in to browse the Internet when using Internet Explorer Enhanced Security Configuration?

9. What two services provide IIS processing?

10. What console do we use to setup web sites on a Windows 2008 web server?

11. Name some of the Application development tools that could be turned on when selecting role services.

12. What considerations should we make for running 64 and 32-bit web applications on a web server?

13. What typically are the two components of the FTP service?

14. Why is it important to use FTP with a web server?

15. What port needs to be open to allow the FTP server to communicate with a client?

16. What is the default mode for FTP transfers from the web designer's computer to the Web Host's server?

17. What are three pieces of information we need to add a website to the web server?

18. Name three authentication methods commonly used with web servers.

19. How do we setup multiple web sites on a web server?

20. What are the two aspects of web server security?